Auditor Galloway releases Missouri Supreme Court audit report

State's highest court receives performance rating of "good"

JEFFERSON CITY, MO (Aug. 28, 2015) State Auditor Nicole Galloway has released an audit of the Missouri Supreme Court, which earned a performance rating of "good."

The audit includes two areas with recommendations for improvements. The audit recommends the court require reimbursement for services performed by court employees that benefit its boards and associations. The audit also made recommendations to improve the way the Supreme Court keeps minutes of administrative meetings.

The complete report is available online at auditor.mo.gov.
